COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course provides education and information relevant to real life and dynamic organizational events confronting human resource (HR) managers working in a 21st century information provision environment (IPE). The overall intent of the course is to facilitate optimal human resource management in the IPE. The course content is designed to encourage student engagement in HR issues and topics.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
At the end of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of current human resource management (HRM) issues relevant to the information provision environment (IPE).
2. Analyze HRM areas within the context of the IPE from the following perspectives: HRM function and environment; HRM requirements (job analysis and planning, staffing, recruiting and selecting new employees); HRM effectiveness (training, development, and performance appraisal); HRM rewards and security (compensation, benefits, safety and health); HRM enhancements (employee relations, motivation, rights and discipline, labor relations, and collective bargaining).
3. Identify strategies for effectively managing and implementing HRM policies and programs within the IPE.

COPYRIGHT STATEMENT:
Some of the materials in this course are possibly copyrighted. They are intended for use only by students registered and enrolled in this course and only for instructional activities associated with, and for the duration of, the course. They may not be retained in another medium or disseminated further. They are provided in compliance with the provisions of the Technology, Education, And Copyright Harmonization (TEACH) Act (refer to the 3/7/2001 TEACH Act at www.copyright.gov/legislation/archive/).

SEXUAL HARRASSMENT POLICY:
It is the policy of the University that its employees and students neither commit nor condone sexual harassment in any form. http://registrar.fsu.edu/bulletin/grad/info/university_notices.htm

SCHOOL OF INFORMATION HARDWARE AND SOFTWARE REQUIREMENTS:
A list of all hardware and software requirements for students participating in the School of Information courses can be found at the following location: http://ischool.cci.fsu.edu/academics/online/requirements/

STUDENT ELIGIBILITY FOR AN INCOMPLETE GRADE:
Incomplete (“I”) grades will not be assigned, except in the case of exceptional unforeseen circumstances that occur within the last three weeks of the semester and your work has otherwise been satisfactory (C average).

University Attendance Policy:
Excused absences include documented illness, deaths in the family and other documented crises, call to active military duty or jury duty, religious holy days, and official University activities. These absences will be accommodated in a way that does not arbitrarily penalize students who have a valid excuse. Consideration will also be given to students whose dependent children experience serious illness.

Academic Honor Policy:
The Florida State University Academic Honor Policy outlines the University’s expectations for the integrity of students’ academic work, the procedures for resolving alleged violations of those expectations, and the rights and responsibilities of students and faculty members throughout the process. Students are responsible for reading the Academic Honor Policy and for living up to their pledge to “... be honest and truthful and ... [to] strive for personal and institutional integrity at Florida State University.” (Florida State University Academic Honor Policy, found at http://fda.fsu.edu/Academics/Academic-Honor-Policy.)

Americans With Disabilities Act:
Students with disabilities needing academic accommodation should:
(1) register with and provide documentation to the Student Disability Resource Center; and
(2) bring a letter to the instructor indicating the need for accommodation and what type. This should be done during the first week of class.

This syllabus and other class materials are available in alternative format upon request.
